

Complaint policy

1. Overview

1.1 At a glance

This policy explains how we manage complaints.

1.2 Scope

This policy applies to complaints received from customers and consumers and their representatives.

1.3 Objective

We aim to respond to all complaints in a prompt, efficient and fair manner and make all reasonable efforts to resolve the complaint to your satisfaction.

It will help us:

- enhance customer service
- improve our products and services.

2. Policy in detail

We aim to resolve your complaint at the first point of contact by providing a solution or negotiating an agreed course of action. We'll respond to complaints in a prompt, efficient and fair manner and make all reasonable efforts to resolve the complaint to your satisfaction.

If it's not possible to fully investigate and resolve your complaint immediately, we'll give you an initial response within:

- two working days, if you've phoned or spoken directly to us
- five working days, if you've sent us an email or written a letter. We'll try to respond earlier by making direct contact with you.

Our initial response will be to either offer you a solution, or explain our intended course of action to resolve your complaint.

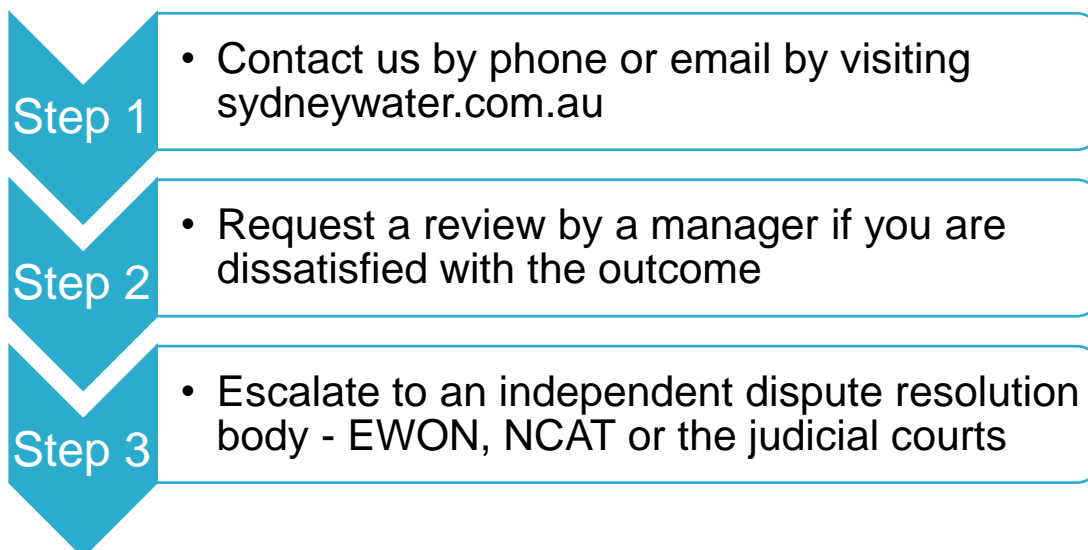

To get an update on your complaint, you can email or call us. If your complaint relates to an account, billing or general matter or you are unsure, please contact 13 20 92 Monday to Friday 8am to 5.30pm. If your complaint relates to a service fault, particularly if the fault has gotten worse, please call 13 20 90 24/7.

2.1 How can you escalate your complaint?

If you're not happy with our solution, you can choose to have the complaint reviewed again by a manager.

If you remain dissatisfied with our response, you can contact an independent dispute resolution body such as the Energy & Water Ombudsman NSW \(EWON\), the NSW Civil & Administrative Tribunal \(NCAT\) or you can go through the judicial courts.

The steps to lodge and escalate a complaint with us are:
